

Spring 2022 Development Internship (Houston - UNPAID)
CHILDREN AT RISK

CHILDREN AT RISK is offering an unpaid and extraordinary learning opportunity for development focused individuals in the Greater Houston region. The Development Intern will have the opportunity to learn from an experienced and driven team of development professionals and work on the essentials of non-profit development work. This is a unique position that will enable the selected candidates to understand the day-to-day operations of a successful, macro-level non-profit organization. This position will focus on supporting individual giving, fundraising special events, grants acquisition, and management of our donor database, DonorPerfect.

CHILDREN AT RISK serves as a catalyst for change to improve the quality of life for children through strategic research, public policy analysis, education, collaboration and advocacy. Our issue areas include education, parenting, human trafficking, and health & nutrition.

Key responsibilities may include:

- Assisting the development team in special event planning and resource development for Spring and Fall 2022 events, including logistics planning and auction item acquisition.
- Working with DonorPerfect database to maintain and update donor records.
- Communicating with constituents about organizational activities and events across multiple media.
- Conducting research on current and potential donors, and third-party partnership opportunities.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Comfortable with databases, running reports, etc. However, knowledge of DonorPerfect is not necessary.
- Ability to work independently as a self-starter, as well as a team member.
- A strong desire to learn about fundraising, special events, and grant writing.
- Attention to detail and a commitment to maintaining accurate, confidential donor records.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills for both internal and external audiences.
- Provide personal laptop with Microsoft processing capabilities.

We are currently looking for an intern from the Greater Houston region. Interns will be expected to both work from home/remotely and at the office as needed. The position will be adapted to the selected candidate's interests, self-identified strengths and availability. Although this internship is unpaid, benefits include a fun and engaging office atmosphere and a recognition for tangible products that will benefit the organization beyond the spring term.

Application Instructions: Our positions are competitive and fill quickly. Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest, resume, and three references to Jennifer Sudkamp, Associate Director of Development, at jsudkamp@childrenatrisk.org by 1/28/22.
